CHARTER EXPLANATION

MISSION: Nokee Kwe, founded on Aboriginal principals, is dedicated to creating, promoting and sustaining culturally sensitive environments, which encourage and support personal development and self-determination.

VISION: At Nokee Kwe, we will be known as an organization that is a leader in the provision of holistic and comprehensive services to Aboriginal and Non-Aboriginal individuals, assisting them in making meaningful life choices

VALUES AND BELIEFS: Our values and beliefs define how we act on a daily basis. They apply collectively and individually to our participants, volunteers and staff, and the way we relate to the community. Values and Beliefs at Nokee Kwe are based on the principals of nurturing the spirit, mind, emotion and body, manifested daily in our being.

In accordance with the above, our staff agrees to perform their duties in an impartial and professional manner, being open and accountable for their work, follow the National Standards and Guidelines for Career Development Practitioners in their practices and conduct themselves with the highest ethical standards

OUR COMMITMENT TO YOU AND OUR SERVICE STANDARDS ARE BASED ON THE ABORIGINAL HOLISTIC TEACHINGS OF THE 7 GRANDFATHERS. YOU CAN EXPECT:

WISDOM: We recognize that you bring with you unique life and work experiences and this will serve as a guide to your career decision making. With a long standing history of working with a variety of employers, we strive to create mutually beneficial employment relationships. Our staff is knowledgeable, experienced and professional.

RESPECT: we promote respect and dignity for all individuals; staff, clients and the community. We have a long honoured tradition of valuing diversity. While accessing services here, certain personal information is required to deliver service in accordance with Employment Ontario Standards. You will be made aware of what information is required. This and other personal information will be collected, stored, used and disclosed in accordance with relevant privacy legislation.

HUMILITY: we strive for continuous improvement across the organization through staff training, staff development and program development. We welcome participant and community feedback to ensure we are meeting community and employer needs

KINDNESS: Career Directions encourages the exploration and discovery of options and self-determination for all clients. We strive to empower individuals, groups and the community. A staff member will always be available to answer your questions if you are coming in to access our information and resource centre. We strive to meet with you within 5 business days; however this could be dependant on demand for our service.

HONESTY: we guide ourselves by the code of professional ethics in the National Standards and Guidelines for Career Development Practitioners (available to view at: http://www.career-dev-guidelines.org/career_dev)

BRAVERY: We recognize that changes in employment, or career plans, are stressful. We acknowledge your bravery in taking this first step to make a positive change in your life, and we will support you as you move forward with your future career plans.

TRUTH: We encourage on-gong self assessment to increase your self-awareness and career/life success

FEEDBACK PROCESS FOR COMPLIMENTS OR COMPLAINTS:

We value your feedback, so please let us know how we may improve our services, or how we can help to resolve a specific service problem

When you provide feedback, your privacy and confidentiality will be respected and protected. You can provide feedback in person or in writing and without giving your name (please see our contact information at the bottom of the page).

On certain occasions, we may request your feedback or comments to use in our marketing material. If you accept such a request, you will have the final say as to how much of your feedback, comments or information is made public.

GRIEVANCE PROCESS:

We strive to have a respectful, safe and positive environment while you are here making your career and employment decisions. It is our hope that if the grievance is with another client, you would first try to resolve it with that person. However, should a problem arise during the delivery of service, and it cannot be resolved in a mutually satisfactory manner, you may seek redress by following these procedures:

Record in writing the problem, the efforts made to resolve it, and the results obtained.

If the grievance involves staff, you should attempt to resolve the issue with the conflicting party's immediate manager. If you are not satisfied with the manager's solution, or if the problem originated between you and a manager, in very unusual circumstances, the grievance can be directed to the Executive Director, or Board of Directors in lieu of an Executive Director, for resolution.

The Executive Director, or Board of Directors, after receiving your updated written account of your redress efforts, will resolve the problem within five working days.

Under all but the most unusual circumstances, this response will be the final decision.

Your letter may be delivered to Nokee Kwe, 1069 Wellington Road South, Suite 104, London, ON N6E 1E9 with (CONFIDENTIAL) written on the outside of the envelope
